Allah's Existence

Belief In Allah's Existence is affirmed through Fitrah (natural inborn belief in Allah), the Mind, the Scriptural evidence.

a) As for the Fitrah, we say: Allah created the belief in Him in every human being. Mankind needs not to be taught this belief or think about how to possess it. Every person feels inside himself that he has a Lord and Creator, and he feels that he is in need of Him; if some major calamity befalls him he turns his hands, eyes and heart towards the heavens, seeking help from his Lord

b) The Human Mind must be used to prove the existence of Allah. All this creation in this universe; we see around us things that exist, such as trees, rocks, mankind, the earth, the heavens, seas, rivers... . This creation could not have come to existence on its own or by chance. It could not have created itself, because it did not exist beforehand. Therefore, how can it create? Then Allah is the creator of this creation. Allah mentioned this in the Quran, "Were they created by nothing, or were they themselves the creators?"[At-Tur52:35]. Therefore, Allah is the One who created them.

c) As for the Scriptural evidence, The major religions of the world have scriptures, which teach the existence of the Creator. In particular, the Quran establishes the existence of Allah.

Is there a doubt about Allah, The Creator of the heavens and the earth? (Quran 14:10)

MUHAMMAD ﷺ AND CHILDREN

Our Prophet was always very kind to children. It was his practice, whenever he came back from a journey, to let the children, who met him on the way, ride before and behind him and he always greeted them first.

He used to kiss the children with affection and loved them very much. Once he was kissing the children when a Bedouin came and said, "You love the children very much. I have ten children and I have never kissed one of them." Muhammad ﷺ replied, "What can I do if Allah takes away love from you?"

Yusuf bin Abdullah said that when he was born his parents took him to Allah's Messenger for his blessing; he suggested the name, Yusuf, and put him in his lap. He patted him on the head and prayed for the Blessings of Allah for him.'

Anas said, "I never prayed behind an Imam who was more brief or more perfect in his prayer than Allah's Messenger. If he heard a baby crying, he would shorten the prayer for fear that the mother might be distressed."

When he was entering the town of Madinah, after migration from Makkah, some young girls of the Ansar were singing with joy in front of their houses. When he passed by, he said, "O girls! You love me." All said, "Yes, O Allah's Messenger." Then he said, "I love you too".

On conclusion, Muhammad ﷺ was very kind and affectionate to the children. He loved them and always treated them with immense, kindness and gentleness.

And indeed [O Muhammad] You are of a great moral character (Quran 64:4)

ABU BAKR AL-SIDDIQUE

His name is Abdullah bin Othman bin Amer bin Amr bin Ka'b, and his nickname was Abu Bakr and designated as "Siddique" (Testifier to the Truth) because he was the first to believe in the Prophet (peace be upon him) and believed him. Abu Bakr was born two and half year of later elephant incident.

The Prophet (PBUH) accompanied him when he entered Thaur Cave, and Abu Bakr entered before him in the cave so that anything would not hurt the Prophet and when they walked together on the way of emigration, Abu Bakr would walk in front of the Prophet and behind him, and on his right and his left.

Abu Bakr al-Siddique (may Allah be pleased with him) was the first caliph (Khalifa). The Prophet (PBUH) commanded us to follow him.

Abu Bakr had a great respect and place in the hearts of the honorable people of Quraish and he used this great respect for calling the people to Allah The Almighty, until a number of immigrants embraced Islam on his hand, such as: Zubair bin Awam, Talha bin Ubaidullah, Saad bin Abi Waqas, Abdul Rahman bin Auf, and Uthman bin Affan (may Allah be pleased with them all).

“If I were to choose a bosom friend I would have definitely chosen Abu Bakr” Prophet (Muslim: 2382)

ABU BAKR AL-SIDDIQUE

When the Prophet (PBUH) urged people to pay for the sake of Allah, Abu Bakr spent all his money.

He released seven slaves before the migration, and one of the greatest work he did after he took the Caliphate was the war with those who turned back from their faith.

Despite being a gentle merciful, he was more severe than Omar bin Khattab in the position of war.

In his Caliphate, he gathered the Holy Quran and conquered Sham and Iraq. Abu Bakr was ascetic, devout and Lord fearing person. He died on Monday in Jumada al-Awwal, 13 years of migration, at the age of 63 years, and he didn't left behind him money because he spent all his money in the way of Allah.

“The wealth of none of you has benefited me as much as the wealth of Abu Bakr.” Prophet (Tirmidhi: 4022)

I am Hamid, "Your friend"

When I go to sleep, I say:

بِسْمِكَ اللَّهُمَّ أَمُوتُ وَأَحْيَا

O Allah in Your Name I die and I live.

I join my hands and recite in them Surah Ikhlas, Falaq and Al-Nas, and then I blow in them after that I wipe three times as much as I am able to of my body with hand, beginning with them first of my head and face and the front of my body. And I recite Ayat Al-kursi, Surah Al-Kafiroon and the concluding Ayat of Surah Al-Baqarah.

Then I say: بِسْمِكَ رَبِّي وَضَعْتُ جَنْبِي وَبِكَ أَرْفَعُهُ وَإِنْ أَمْسَكَتْ نَفْسِي فَأَرْحَمَهَا وَإِنْ أَرْسَلْتَهَا فَاحْفَظْهَا بِمَا تَحْفَظُ بِهَا مِنْ عِبَادِكَ الصَّالِحِينَ.

With Your name my Lord, I place my side and with Your Grace I will raise it up. If you with hold my soul have mercy on it but if You let it go, guard it against which you guarded your pious slaves.

And when I wake up I say:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَحْيَانَا بَعْدَ مَا أَمَاتَنَا
وَالِإِيَّهِ النُّشُورُ

All praise is due to Allah, Who has brought us back to life after He has caused us to die, and to him is the return.

Remembrance of Allah is the greatest (thing in life), Allah knows the everything you are doing (Quran :29:45)
